China in seventh heaven with latest Qatargas LNG cargo

The delivery of an inaugural LNG cargo from Qatargas to China National Oil Corporation's Yuedong regasification terminal this week marked the latest chapter in China's soaring status as a major LNG importer.

Qatargas said the arrival of the Q-Flex LNG vessel 'Al Kharaitiyat' at the new facility ^[1] in Jieyang, Guangdong province, was the company's seventh cargo used to commission new terminals in China to date.
