Noble Group's fate hangs in balance as creditors locked in crunch talks – reports

Troubled trading house Noble Group is awaiting to hear if banks will extend its credit lifeline this month, amid a collapse in share price and revelations that the company will not return a profit until 2019.

Creditors are wrangling over whether to extend a USD 2 billion credit facility or force the Hong Kong-based outfit into insolvency or liquidation, media reports stated.

Noble's market value has shed more than ...
