Australian LNG exports hit monthly record as project woes subside

Australia's monthly LNG exports exceeded 5 mt for the first time in July, hitting a third consecutive monthly record of 5.4 mt, according to Adelaide-based consultancy EnergyQuest.

Volumes look set to continue rising as existing projects recover from start-up and production setbacks and new projects come on stream, putting Australia on track to surpass Qatar as the world's leading LNG exporter as early as next year.

July's exports represent an annualised rate of ...
