Cheniere sues Tellurian and co-founder in counter-claim against ex-partner Parallax

Cheniere Energy has widened a legal claim against its former LNG development partner Parallax Enterprises by naming its equity owners and Tellurian in a USD 46 million lawsuit.

Paperwork filed by Cheniere in a Texas district court seeks to draw Tellurian – the LNG developer founded by Parallax CEO Martin Houston and former Cheniere CEO Charif Souki – into the bitter legal spat. It also names Tellurian's Driftwood LNG project company as a defendant.

Cheniere has accused Tellurian, Houston and individual defendants listed in court documents of ...
