Port Meridian eyes LNG and CNG imports in deal with Global Energy Ventures

Meridian Holdings, owner of the proposed Port Meridian offshore import project in the UK, is now targeting both LNG and CNG imports following the signing of a series agreements with CNG solutions company Global Energy Ventures (GEV).

GEV, which recently took an equity stake in Meridian, is looking to import CNG into the UK, has signed agreement granting it gas volume rights of up to 300 MMcf/d of port capacity at the Port Meridian project, along with securing gas sales rights of up to 300 MMcf/d to Uniper Global Commodities.
