Nigeria approves ambitious gas policy to tackle ‘full-blown energy crisis’

The Nigerian government has set out ambitious plans to reshape its economy around natural gas as well as oil to tackle a “full-blown energy crisis”, following approval of a national gas policy.

Nigeria's cabinet last week approved the policy that seeks to tap into proven gas reserves of 188 Tcf in a bid for Nigeria to become “an attractive gas-based industrial nation”, while meeting local demands and ...
