The Zukunft Erdgas interview: Timm Kehler, CEO

Germany is on a path towards radical energy change in the coming years, with a phase out of the country's ubiquitous coal-fired generation planned for 2038, and of nuclear by 2023. Meanwhile ambitious decarbonisation targets, an ever-growing share of renewables in the energy mix, as well as the economic fallout of the Covid-19 pandemic, pose fresh challenges to gas market players.
