Q1 '15 LNG supply increases in the Pacific basin and demand increases in Europe

The start-up of three new liquefaction trains in the Pacific basin since May visual_editor014 helped boost LNG supply to a record quarterly total in Q1 '15, at a time when demand growth has been weakening in Asia's main markets. Gas Strategies reviews LNG supply and demand in Q1 '15 and considers the implications for the remainder of visual_editor015.
